He died a few years later, he had any intention of helping others. He has sincerely trained his body, also had a negligible potential with goodness, but people sometimes abused his kindness, shirou suddenly meets two warriors one night, last words now that you have the chronological order to look fairies, enjoy the anime, if you feel that the order needs some updates, let us know in the comments section. Although the 'Fate' series is of enormous success, beginners could find it difficult to go through all this, often things get confused as beginners weeds do not understand where to start, study deen was what started the anime adaptations of fairies, but it was Do/Zero studythat started all the crab! Netflix also has some of its original Fate series! What is fate? The fate was originally a novel of visual light. Ha ha ha harunning for a long time to recover all parts of the Fate could be quite hectic right now. However, there are some ways that you can look at everything. Usually, there is the chronological order of the Fate that is based on the time of release. However, if you do not want to look like this, we have an order for you to follow while you look at the Fate series. Of course, there are also some spin-offs and movies. We will explain everything while we proceed with the article! Chronological order to watch the series Fate 1. Fate/Zero Fate/Zero, a light novel by Gen Urobuchi is the prequel of the night Fate/stay and tells the story of fate 10 years ago. It was also a game produced by Type-Moon. Watch Fate/Zero at first to better understand the anime series Fate. The first Fate/Zero is the place where everything started. Starting with the bosses and servants, all the events started here. You will understand the Fate franchise the best if you start with Fate/Zero as it tells the story of getting the Holy Grail 2. Fate/Stay Night Fate/stay night was actually a visual novel. Moon type developed the game. Studio Deen then created the anime version in 2006. This is the franchise's original Fate/stay night TV anime. The manga series was developed after the visual novel gained huge popularity. This part concerns the Fifth Grail War which has entered from the simple teenager- Shirou Emiya He trains to become a magician to fight in the Grail War, but he fails when some bad guys attack him. Saber comes to his help and the story begins! Saber is extremely powerful, and then we know that the winner of the fourth Grail War was Saber. 3. Do/stay night: Unlimited Blade Works Fate/stay Night: Unlimited blade works after the Fate/stay night. The story resumes with Rin Tohsaka, a magician from Shirou's school. It could use magic very fiercely.night: The path of Lama Unlimited Works proceeds with the protagonist- Archer as they Rin. After the events of Fate/Stay Night, when Shirou is almost killed by Lancer, Rin gets Sakura Matou to revive him. After a lot of fights, Archer and Saber are successful in destroying the Holy Grail. Blade Works' Unlimited True Ending shows that Rin and Saber go to London, and enters into a relationship while studying magic. 4. Stage / night of rest: the feeling of heaven This is the third final route of the original Fate series. After the Unlimited Blade Works events, the anime takes its pace with Sakura Matou. Later we know she's actually Rin's sister. Produced by Studio Ufotable, Sakura and Shirow face the obstacles of the war of the Holy Grail, helping each other. The visual novel of Type-Moon Fate/stay Night, was adapted by Studio Ufotable to turn into a trilogy. Having three parts set in an alternate universe, Shirow and Sakura fight hard, and Shirow saves Sakura twice. This is the main order to look at destiny. Of course, there are other spin-offs and anime series movies. But if you look at these, all your questions will be answered. You can look at different paths later to understand more about the events of the Fate. Order of release of the Series Fate 1.
